

Course Introduction: Case Based Critical Thinking

“The demand for ideas
isn’t going away.”

...Edward Glaeser
Harvard

What is in this PowerPoint?

1. Class Goal and Behavioral Objectives
2. “Big Picture” ...How will I learn Critical Thinking?
3. What will do every class
4. “Passive (old) class versus “Active” (new) class

1

Course Goal & Objectives

Course Goal

- Train next generation of global leaders through
- Multicultural and multilingual critical thinking.

Course Objectives (preview*)

Topic

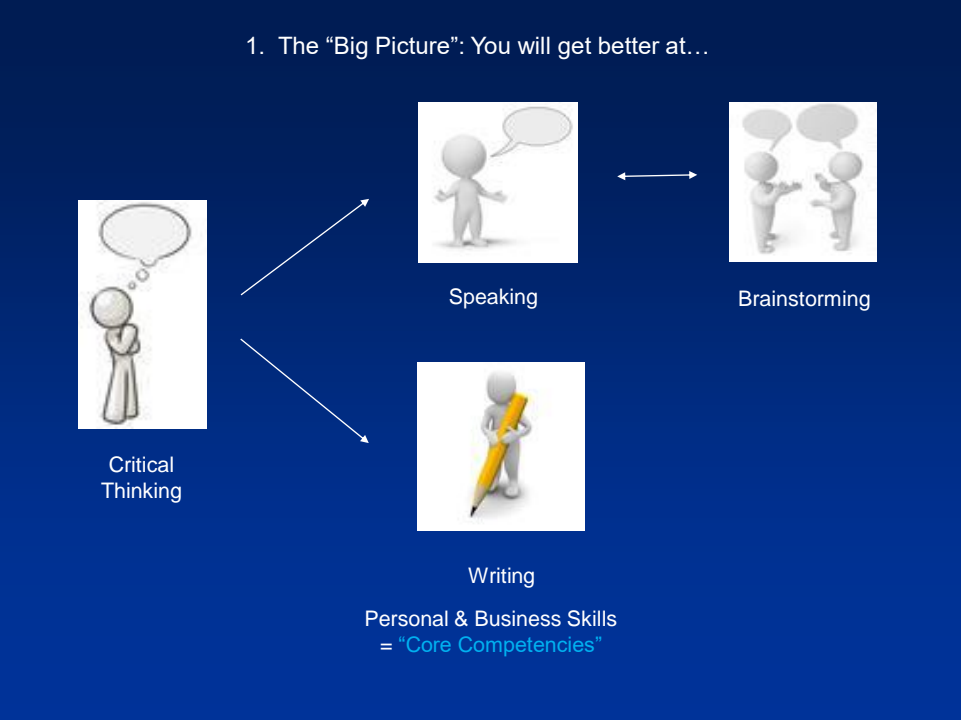

- stakeholders
- brainstorming
- more brainstorming
- ‘slippery slope’
- emotion / logic
- ‘process’ / ‘results’
- control
- “nuance”

Students will...

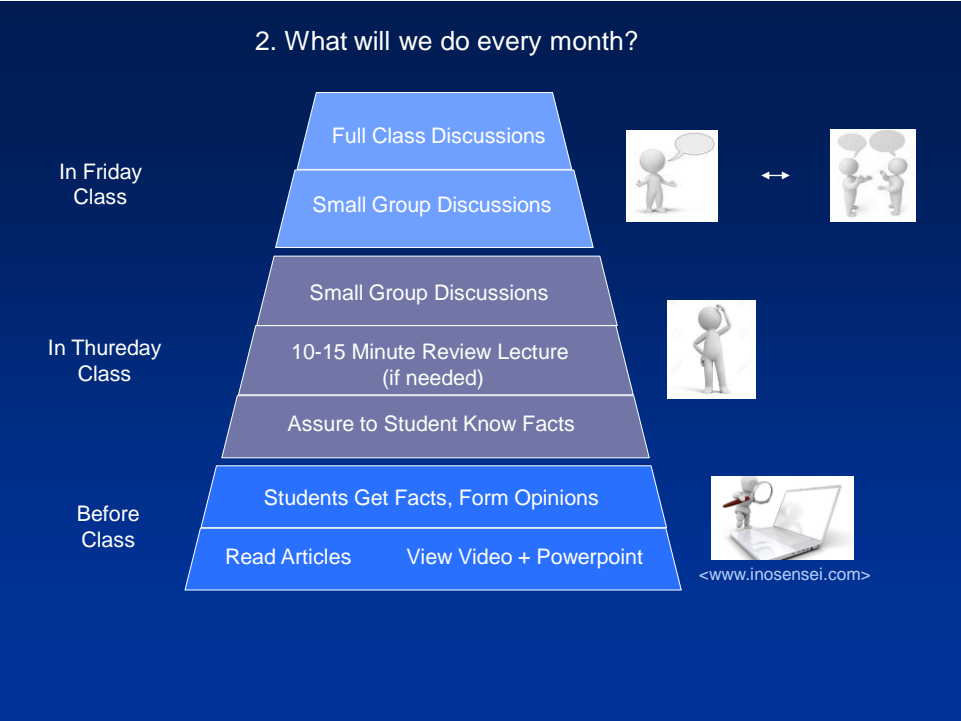

- identify and describe
- use the 6 brainstorming skills
- multicultural & multilingual skills
- recognize / explain stopping point on slope
- identify these personal motivations
- identify and distinguish between the two
- distinguish between what I can / cannot control
- identify in “gray areas” above objectives

*Detailed description of Objectives are in separate PowerPoint

2

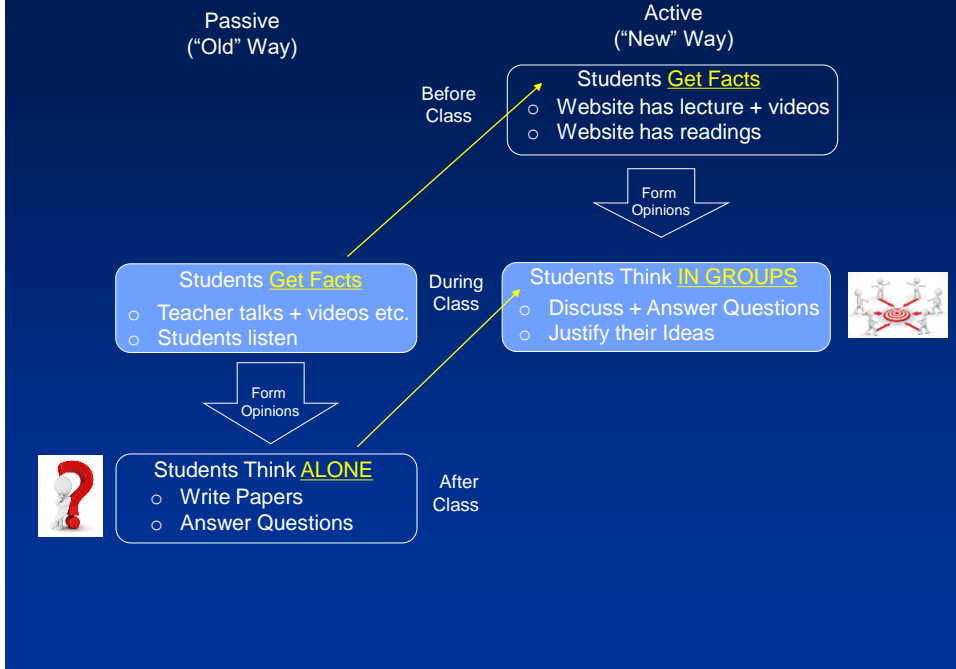

3

4

3. What is an "Active" Classroom?

5